

The Master of Public Administration (MPA) degree is the primary professional degree for the practice of administration in government and nonprofit organizations. Representatives from Florida State's faculty helped to establish the processes of the National Association of Schools of Public Affairs and Policy (NASPAA) for accrediting professional masters' degree programs in our field. The Askew School's Master of Public Administration degree program was the first in Florida and one of the first in the nation to be fully accredited.